APPLICATION DEADLINE IS APRIL 15

- Background. P. G. & Ruby Rush Hollandsworth were residents of Clarksburg, WV prior to their death. At their direction a perpetual scholarship was established at Bank One, Private Client Services, now known as JPMorgan. 2005 was the first year for the scholarship and four scholarships were awarded. Please note that the number of scholarships awarded may vary from year to year.
- Purpose. The purpose of the P. Scholarships are available for new graduates and also for renewals for prior recipients.
- Selection Committee. As provided in the governing document, the Selection Committee is to consist of three members, one of whom shall be a member of the Clarksburg Baptist Church, one of whom shall be a child of P.G. and Ruby Rush Hollandsworth, and the third of whom shall be the Trustee. The selection of the scholarship recipient(s) shall be made in the absolute discretion of the Selection Committee.

- Financial Need" Defined. In determining whether an applicant for a scholarship from said "Trust" qualifies under the provision regarding "financial need", the Committee considers the fact that "need" is a wholly relative term, the conception of which must, within reasonable limits, vary with the personal situation of the individual making application for such scholarship.

Therefore, in determining "financial need" of the applicant, the committee is authorized, in its absolute discretion, to take into account the anticipated income of the applicant and the financial status of the parents of the applicant. However, other factors, such as the number of children in the family of the applicant, the number of children that one family has in college at the same time, etc. may be taken into account by the Committee.
